COME TO GRIEF.

The "Marion Trust Company" in the Hands of a Receiver.

There is scarcely any business man of Decatur but what has heard of the Marion Trust Company, an institution which has flourished for a year at Indianapolis, and has lamed a number of victims in this community. The concern is no more. A telegram from Indianapolis, dated the 17th, says "the receiver appointed to take charge of the Marion Trust Company, located in that city, reports that that concern has been in existence about one year, during which time nearly $200,000 have been taken in, and $50,000 paid out. Victims to the swindle number about 5,000; the average amount received from each is $40. The investigation thus far shows the assets to consist of some office furniture and a cord or more of cirence. The liabilities cannot be ascertained at present, but it is not likely the concern will pay anything. Mr. Collier, the manager, has been absent in Chicago since the receiver was appointed, where he is interested in a similar institution known as the Union Benefit Association. The Indiana concern has been doing business in Illinois, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi, Missouri and Alabama."

The agents of this concern were driven out of Decatur by State's Attorney Johns, who received instructions from the state authorities at Springfield, and subsequently it will be remembered Rev. Wright, who formerly resided in Decatur, got a benefit in the papers at St. Louis.

For City Treasurer.

Mr. C. O. Judson is the first candidate announced for the Republican nomination for city treasurer. Mr. Judson is a most excellent citizen in every way, and is a thorough business man. He served through the war as a soldier in the 92d Illinois, and has resided in Decatur some ten years or more. He would make an unexceptionable officer.

THE speakers at the temperance meeting at the tabernacle Saturday night were Capt. Post, D. L. Burn, and Rev. M. S. Newcomer, of the Church of God. The attendance was fair. The addresses were of the usual interesting character. Rev. Newcomer has a fine command of language and was frequently applauded.

A Distressing Accident.

An unfortunate mishap befel Justice Albert at his home on Sunday at about noon. Mr. Albert, who has not been in good health for a month, and was just beginning to get rid of aches and pains, was engaged in hitching up his horse to his buggy preparatory to taking a ride into the country. The horse had not been out of the stable for several weeks and was feeling rather skittish. Mr. Albert had got the animal hitched up, when a piece of paper blown by the stiff breeze, came dancing along toward the horse. The animal became frightened at the paper, and Mr. Albert in catching hold of the lines broke both bones of his left leg a few inches above the ankle. Mr. Albert is unable to state whether or not the horse kicked him. The break was probably caused by a sudden wrench. The Justice was attended by Dr. Small, who reset the broken limb. Mr. Albert was cheerful to-day, notwithstanding his misfortune and the pain he was enduring. He will be compelled to remain in his room for several weeks, as the healing process will be very slow in his case, for he is well advanced in years.

TOWNSHIP election two weeks from to-morrow. Let every Republican attend the primaries Thursday evening, March 29. The nominating convention will be held at the court house on Friday evening following, at 7:30 o'clock. There will be 69 delegates to the convention—24 from the first district; 18 from the second; 15 from the third and 12 from the fourth.

A Jersey Stock Farm.

Mrs. A. C. Bernard has leased her farm west of the city for a term of years to Mr. Gregg, a prominent and wealthy stock raiser and dealer in Decatur. Mr. Gregg goes on the farm for the purpose of starting a large Jersey stock farm, making this grade of cattle a specialty, and he will turn his attention principally to the breeding of Jerseys. The farm consists of twenty-five acres, is well improved, having all the necessary conveniences and appliances for a business of this kind. It is said that Mr. Gregg has a number of fine Jersey cattle which he will place on this farm this spring.—Bloomington Pantagraph.

Mr. Gregg is a relative of Dr. J. D. Wheeler and of Mr. D. L. Vigne, of this city. We learn that Mr. G. is an experienced stock raiser and is confident of making a success of his venture in McLean county.

Wanted.

For Decatur and vicinity a man competent to assume control of the business of an old and first-class association organized under the laws of Illinois and Indiana. Tue after Easter ball will be given at Garretts Armory, one week from to-night, by the Decatur Cigar-makers' Union. It will be a very enjoyable affair. The members of the Union have always made a success of their popular parties. Good music has been engaged.

THERE was an unusually large attendance at the Presbyterian church on Sunday forenoon. The congregation was so large that chairs had to be placed in the aisles for the accommodation of late comers. Rev. Presley preached an excellent discourse which riveted the attention of his hearers to the close. Two young men united with the church. In the evening Rev. Mr. Robertson, from near Chicago, preached from the 20th verse of the 8th chapter of Jeremiah: "The harvest is past, the summer is ended and we are not saved."

IS your wagon or buggy broken or damaged? If so, take them to David F. Hamaker and he will repair them for you at very small cost.

MRS. HANNAH THOMPSON, Chicago, Ill., says: "I gave Brown's Iron Bitters to my two children as a tonic when they had suffered from scurvy fever, and it restored their strength."

The dwelling house of Mr. Theo. Bobb.

On Cerro Gordo street, came near catching fire in a peculiar manner on Sunday. The family were seated in the sitting room, when the smell of burning rags was discovered. A close search was made to locate the fire, Mr. Bobb examining the garret and every other obscure place without success. Finally he went into a bedroom and opening a closet door smoke poured out and there was a sudden blaze. A pair of cotton blankets had been left lying upon the top of a trunk in the closet, and during the day in some unknown manner these blankets caught fire. The fire was quickly put out. Mr. Bobb doesn't think it was a case of spontaneous combustion, but he is wholly at a loss to account for the fire.

The Odd Fellows at Mt. Zion seem to be in hard luck. Last fall their hall caught fire and was consumed together with other property. They put up a new building and furnished the lodge room on the second floor with handsome furniture. The first floor is occupied as a general store. Friday the Odd Fellows took down their heating stove, but failed to close up the pipe hole. That evening a rushing fire was kept up in the store below, and Saturday morning smoke was seen issuing from the second story windows and the roof. A speedy examination was made when it was learned that sparks had fallen through the pipe hole upon the lodge room carpet. A wide circle of the new carpet was burned and it was still burning slowly when the men entered the room.

Amusements.

To-night we are to have Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Knight, the cleverest specialty performers on any stage, at the opera house, supported by a fine company. The piece will be "Baron Rudolph," by Bronson Howard, who never wrote a bad play. It is pronounced the greatest hit of the season, and will certainly please all who witness the entertainment to-night. Admission, 35, 50 and 75 cents.

"One of the Finest" is a new comedy which is to be given here on Wednesday evening by the Gus Williams Company. There will be plenty of fun in the piece, and Mr. Williams will be perfectly at home in his great specialty, "The German Policeman." Popular prices.

Billy Barry and Hugh Fay, the greatest living exponents of Irish comedy, will visit Decatur on the 28th, in their original creation, Irish aristocracy, in "Muldoo's Picnic." They are supported by a first-class company, "Muldoo's Picnic" has never been played in Decatur. It is the comedy which had such a run in the larger cities last year, and from which other comedies, such as "Muldoo's Blunders," "Muldoo's Meanderings," etc., were taken. This is the original "Muldoo's Picnic" company, and the play is absolutely the funniest Irish comedy ever written.

A Duck Hunt.

On Saturday last Frank Blakeney, Jack Meriwether, John Hudson, the Mueller brothers, Darwin Greer, Chas. M. Allison, and John Bartholomew, spent the day hunting ducks in the vicinity of Ivesdale. They had grand sport, and succeeded in killing about 75 ducks, bringing home 47 all told. The party intended coming home Saturday night, but they could not catch a train. So they walked to Tolono and came home Sunday night, tired and hungry; but they were gamey to the last, and avenging their ducks triumphantly as proof of their good marksmanship.

A Letter from Dr. Goodwin.

EDS. REPUBLICAN.—The daily visits of the REPUBLICAN keep us pretty well posted in the progress of affairs in Decatur, and we are pleased to hear of the new and fine buildings that are going up, and of the temperance meetings that are being held preparatory to the election of the right kind of men. But if I were allowed to suggest anything to the temperance workers it would be that the meetings in the tabernacle are not going to do all the work needed. The wards must be canvassed, and the chief work must be done personally. Of course we greatly rejoice in the wonderful revival now in progress there in all the churches. Before Mr. Harrison went to Decatur I wrote him an invitation to come to Quincy, and the two pastors here signed the invitation in behalf of their official members. After Mr. Harrison began his work at Decatur Rev. W. D. Best and myself called on him personally and spoke to him about coming here to hold a meeting, but as we have no church here sufficiently large to hold the crowds that attend his meetings he declined to come. I am in complete sympathy with his work, and rejoice as much as any one can at his success. The revivals at Danville, Champagne, Bloomington and Decatur—my former fields of labor—have made me study with deep interest the 30th verse of the 4th chapter of John, which reads thus: "And he that respecteth receipt wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal; that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together." May the good work go on there and everywhere, all summer and always!

To such as have not forgotten us we send kindly greetings.

Yours, truly, W. R. GOODWIN.
Quincy, Ill., March 16, 1883.

At the Baptist church, on Sunday morning, Rev. Mr. Roberts preached an able sermon to a very large congregation. His text was from John, 16th chapter and part of 32d verse, "Yet I am not alone because the Father is with me." In the evening, owing to the sudden disagreeable change in the weather, the audience was not so large, but all who were present listened to a good discourse from 1st Corinthians, 1st chapter and 28th verse. At the close of the sermon our person was baptized.

THE gross earnings of the Illinois Central Railroad company in the year 1882 were $8,905,312.15, being an increase of $1,914,744 over the preceding year. The net earnings, $3,600,769.15, an increase of $433,587.51. Outlay of the year for permanent improvements, $1,271,451. The company sold 23,455 acres of its lands during 1882, at an average of $4.87 per acre. It still has 206,597 acres unsold.

C. B. PRESCOTT means business. He now offers extra inducements to cash buyers wanting Haines Bros' pianos or Western Cottage organs. Call at the "City Music Store" in opera block and learn prices.

It was Constable Harris' road cart that was wrecked in the runaway last Saturday. To it was attached Fred Litterer's gray horse.

THE GREAT REVIVAL.

A FRESH START SUNDAY NIGHT, WITH FIFTY AT THE ALTAR AND MANY CONVERSIONS.

The attendance at the Rev. Harrison revival meeting at the First M. E. church Sunday night was so large that the aisles and standing room everywhere were taken up during the entire service. Rev. Harrison talked longer than usual, delivering a sermon which occupied about 35 minutes' time. He based his searching remarks on the inquiry of Elijah, "How long halt ye between two opinions?" found in the 21st verse of the 18th chapter of Kings. At the close of the earnest exhortation the altar services began, and there were about 50 seekers, 17 of whom were new ones. There were nearly 20 conversions, among them several young men. It was pronounced the best meeting of the week. At the afternoon meeting 15 persons united with the church on probation.

For Collector.

To-day Mr. James S. Carter is announced as a candidate for town collector, subject to the action of the Republican convention. Mr. Carter has served as deputy collector for the last seven years, and is thoroughly conversant with every detail of the office. He is a native of Decatur, has lived here all his life, and is known to all our people as a man capable of doing any kind of business, perfectly reliable and trustworthy in all respects, and that he would make a first-class collector there is not the slightest doubt.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Frank Smith left for Chicago to-day. Rev. Harrison went to Bement to-day to conduct revival services.

"Squire Barnwell, who was in the city to-day, says everything is quiet about 'Gordy'."

Prof. J. N. Wilkinson left for St. Louis this morning. He will be absent two days.

Dr. W. F. Green, of Cerro Gordo, spent Sunday with W. E. Constant, on Cemetery street.

William McCandlish, of England and Frank Turner, of Canada, are at the St. Nicholas.

Joshua Baker is reported quite low. He has been confined to his home by illness for several weeks.

Mayor Waggoner says he thinks he will be in Europe at about the time the city election occurs.

A. H. Varney, of the Commercial hotel at Assumption, is in the city to-day on business.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Knight are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Johns to-day. Mrs. Knight is an old acquaintance of Mrs. Johns.

W. J. Quinlan will not mark off the ground to-day for his new dwelling on College hill. He thinks he will wait a few days until the snow disappears.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph J. Simpson entertained a company of neighbors and friends, Saturday evening, in honor of the host's birthday anniversary.

Charley Condell is down sick with erysipelas at St. Louis. Dr. Jones, a former resident of Decatur, is attending him.

Robert S. Welsh and Miss Sarah Good were to-day granted a license to wed. "Bob" is a driver of one of the Pacific express wagons.

Phil Bury spent a day at Ivesdale last week. While there he gave a specimen of Decatur skill at hunting, and killed 27 ducks and 1 brant. That's doing pretty well.

Pat J. Kearney, at the St. Patrick's day celebration at the court house Friday night delivered a feeling oration appropriate to the occasion, which was enthusiastically applauded.

Frank Batteiger will leave this afternoon for Springfield, where he will probably remain until fall. Frank will swing a razor in one of the popular shops at the capital.

M. W. Tobin, business agent for Barry & Fay's new comedy, "Irish Aristocracy," paid us a call to-day. Mr. Tobin was advance man for the Emma Abbott company two years ago.

Dr. Cole, the dentist, was rushed with business on Saturday, and looked weak at 5 o'clock in the evening. He had remained at his chair serving patrons without rest from 8:30 o'clock in the morning.
